the bill, please say aye. Those opposed say. The bill is readvanced. Do we have other motions on Select File?

(End of Belt 4A)

(Begin Belt 5A)

Senator Fellman?

SENATOR FELLMAN: I request to have them printed in the Journal if they aren't there yet.

CLERK: Which ones?

SENATOR FELLMAN: The ones that were just passed relating to LB782.

CLERK: Oh, they are automatically.

SENATOR FELLMAN: Okay. That'll be what....tomorrow's Journal?

CLERK: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Right.

SENATOR FELLMAN: Thank you.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Waldron asks to print amendments in the Journal relating to LB1028.

PRESIDENT: So ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, there is pending a motion by Senator Mahoney to reconsider our action in....LB870. This bill was indefinitely postponed by earlier action of the Legislature.

PRESIDENT: All right. Senator Mahoney. The Chair recognizes Senator Mahoney.

SENATOR MAHONEY: Mr. President, I won't waste any time on this. Everyone remembers exactly what we did here on Final Reading and I ask to change my vote for purposes of reconsideration. LB870.

PRESIDENT: LB870. We've got LB870 now. Thank you.

SENATOR MAHONEY: And so my wishes then would be to bring the bill back, then we could talk and discuss about it later if there's enough votes to bring it back.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barnett. We're discussing the reconsideration action on LB870.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President and members of the Legislature. I'd like to support Senator Mahoney in that act to get this back on the floor for two or three reasons. First of all, there isn't any sense in having a state electrical act unless you're going to do it properly and under the present conditions, it's not being done properly. And the senators devoted to kill this ought to realize it. You set up a state electrical licensing system to make homes, businesses, and everything else easier to construct, safer
